

50 states for 50 years: Protect Greater Canyonlands

Join the campaign!

Thousands of people from across the country have called upon President Obama to protect Greater Canyonlands as a national monument. This widespread national support is one of the great strengths of our campaign, and we would like to capitalize on that. To make this support visible to the Administration we created the “50 States for Greater Canyonlands” project through which we plan to highlight shows of support from across the country. Interested in joining this nation-wide network of supporters? Add your voice to the project!

- Take a photo: We have already collected almost 900 photographs, but we are missing photos from AR, DE, OK, MS, KY, RI, SD, NC, WV, and VT—and always welcome additional photos from any state. Print out (or ask us to mail you) a copy of our yellow “Protect Greater Canyonlands” sign and write in your name, town, and state. Take a photo and email it to rachel@suwa.org. If you take a group photo, please also hold a sign or banner with the group name if possible.
- Collect postcards: We are trying to keep up a steady drumbeat of postcards to the Obama Administration. Ask your friends, family, and others to sign a postcard—and don’t forget to sign one yourself! Just email rachel@suwa.org (East), clayton@suwa.org (Midwest), terri@suwa.org (West), or dave@suwa.org (Utah) with your address and the number of cards you would like.
- Write a LTE or article for local news: Submit a letter-to-the-editor to your local paper or an article about the region to local travel magazines. You are our best resource for getting our efforts into local media across the country, so get in touch with your regional SUWA organizer (see above) if you have ideas. Remember to email us copies of anything you get published!

- Collect supporting letters from local groups: Do you know of or belong to any local environmentally-minded organizations? Ask about creating a group letter of support! We are happy to provide a letter-writing guide.
- Organize a gathering: Host a house party or slideshow for Greater Canyonlands! Contact your regional organizer for materials.
- Table at festivals: Sign up for a table at local fairs and festivals to spread the word and collect more postcards! Contact dave@suwa.org for a kit of materials.
